

Web Developer I INTERN – for Immediate Hire on or before 6 Feb 2015

Job Code :793

Division :Adayana Government Group

Location :Falls Church, VA

Job Description :

This individual will work within a project team to develop courseware pages, using Adobe Flash templates, based on written storyboards. Project duration is January through March 2015.

Essential Duties & Responsibilities:

1. Development & Delivery

- Interprets design documents and efficiently creates courseware pages that integrate text, still images, animation, video, and/or audio
- Tests, troubleshoots, and adapts online courses based on quality feedback
- Reviews work to minimize errors before releasing to quality assurance
-

2. Teamwork & Project Execution

- Collaborates with design and technical staff on projects, technical specifications, and deadlines
- Consults with team members on design and delivery of content to ensure functionality
- Manages time effectively to meet project budget and schedule
- Works well among peers who are passionate about creating great training products
- Communicates well and keeps project manager and project team informed about development status
- Adheres to development deadlines and project schedules
- Develops and maintains effective working relationships with team members

Job Requirements :

Position Qualifications:

- Enrollment in College-level Computer Science program or related field or 2+ years relevant work experience
- Experience with Adobe Flash or another web development technology a plus
- Experience developing courseware a plus

- Ability to create a page layout that is visually pleasing
- Good interpersonal and communication skills
- Ability to work in a fast paced, highly dynamic environment
- Ability to meet project deadlines
- Experience programming simple interactions with ActionScript and/or JavaScript a plus
- Experience with one or more of the following a plus:
 - ActionScript
 - JavaScript
 - Graphic design
 - HTML5
 - JKO Course Builder

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Chimyra Powell

Adayana Government Group

cpowell@adayana.com